“Turn the Town Pink”
Breast Cancer & Domestic Violence Awareness

Stony Brook University Cancer Center and the Town of Brookhaven are partnering this year to “Turn the Town Pink” by holding a number of events throughout the month to heighten the awareness of Breast Cancer.

During the month of October, to find out how you can “Turn the Town Pink” and help raise awareness about self-exams, clinical exams, mammograms and genetic testing go to:

http://www.cancer.stonybrookmedicine.edu/pink
http://www.stonybrook.edu/hr/misc/ul/state/bcs.shtml

**************************

“Shine the Light on Domestic Violence”

Purple is the symbolic color for domestic violence awareness. The Center for Prevention and Outreach (CPO) and the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) are partnering to increase awareness about domestic violence and its affect on individuals and communities. Learn more about Stony Brook’s policy on violence and planned activities for the month at:

http://stonybrook.edu/CPO
http://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/eap/
http://www.stonybrook.edu/policy/policies.shtml?ID=520